Insanity Will Be Defense In Franks Murder Trial

HARRY DAUGHERTY DEFIES SENATE COMMITTEE

Blind Man Starts on Tandem Trip to New York

Millions Will Be Used In Effort To Clear Men

By EDWARD C. DEER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
CHICAGO, June 4.—Defense of Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, young millionaire slayers of Robert Franks, himself the son of a multi-millionaire, will be insanity.

Alienists and psychiatrists will be called to give their expert opinions that the boys were suffering from diseased minds and were entirely irresponsible for the slaying of the 14 year old school boy.

The defense, headed by Clarence Darrow, famous attorney, believes that if the state presses its charges attempting to connect the student-murderers with additional crimes, including the murder of Freeman Louis Tracy, their fellow student in the University of Chicago, and the mutilation of Charles Beane, chauffeur, it will add in proving the contention that the boys are insane and committed the acts because of diseased and abnormal mentalities.

The defense will endeavor to show that the two 19 year old students committed the Franks crime and any others of which they may be guilty, without motives, whenever the fits of their insanity suggested such action. Darrow has made it clear that no expense will be spared to save the boys from the gallows. The whole of combined fortunes of the Leopold and Loeb families, more than $15,000,000 has been placed at his disposal and he is ready for the greatest court fight of his long career.

One of the most important links in the chain of evidence against Leopold and Loeb was welded today when W. D. McNally, coroner's physician, announced that human blood had been found on the clothing worn by the two boys. Blood was also found on the floor mat of the rented automobile and on a pair of rubber boots worn by Leopold.

"This evidence," Crowe pointed out, "is very important and will be used through in our case."

Crowe indicated some fear that the signed confession of Loeb and Leopold might be thrown out in the murder trial and is making every effort to accumulate sufficient evidence to convict them should this happen.

Hints that Leopold and Loeb would attempt suicide today caused Sheriff Peter M. Hoffman to throw double guards around them.

Every article brought into the cells where the boys are held is being examined to prevent delivery of weapons or poison of any kind. Two guards are stationed before each cell. Both Loeb and Leopold expressed a desire to commit suicide rather than die on the gallows should they be convicted of the murder.

"I shudder at the thought of being executed," Leopold said, his proud air retreating after one day behind prison bars. "I would greatly prefer to end my own life if I must live it."

To Leopold, boastful of killing Franks and evading the law until his comrades confessed and implicated him, suicide would be more welcome than hanging.

The two youthful prisoners, both 19, who admitted they killed young Franks, "just for the fun of it," were slowly adjusting themselves to prison routine. Leopold found more difficulty in mingling with other prisoners than did Loeb.

"That guy thinks he's too good for us guys—he'd better lay off that Ritz stuff," one of the prisoners, a bandit snuff concerning Leopold.

Loeb, always showing himself the softer of the two, found more favor in the eyes of his jail mates. He asked for regular prison garb, discarding his $200 suit. He amused himself during a recreation period by teaching a colored boy prisoner the alphabet.

A striking difference between the two boys was exhibited at meal time. Both boys had their meals sent in from their millionaire homes. Leopold, occupying a cell together with Thomas Deberry, a robber, ate

Pretty Peggy Is Married To Man Of Noble House

By FRANK GETTY
NEW YORK, June 4.—"This is my first real marriage—and my last. Oh, at last I'm in love," and Peggy Hopkins Joyce, radiant, raised her beautiful arms ecstatically and smiled upon her new and fourth husband, Count Gosta Morner of Sweden.

For pretty Peggy, for want of whose love men have killed themselves and whose priceless jewels and millionaire husbands and fascinating smiles have long been the sensation of two continents, has married again.

"This time for love," the actress said, happily, "Love at first sight—the love I've been waiting for all my life."

Peggy's new husband is descended from an old noble house of Sweden, but he is a young, strapping business man, six feet three, aristocratic and immaculate in appearance. He is 21 years old and, when they signed the register in the Swedish Lutheran church at Atlantic City last week, Peggy gave her age as 28.

The stage which Peggy has raced for many years will know her no more, her new husband says. He will take her to Paris in the fall—for a rest, the Count explained. Then Sweden and the Baronial halls among the Fjords where the parental blessing awaits them.

Peggy Joyce had always declared she would never marry again. And had added that her next husband his meal in silence. He did not speak to his cell mate and ate on the opposite side of the little room.

Loeb graciously invited his cell mate, Edward Donker, also a robber to share his meal. The two ate side by side on the edge of a cot and ate heartily. They conversed freely and easily.

Presenting of evidence to the grand jury will be resumed this afternoon. State's Attorney Crowe indicated he would take his time, calling as many witnesses as possible and predicted it would be several days before any indictment would be returned.

Jacob Franks, father of the slain youth, was one of the most important witnesses called at the first session of the grand jury. He told of the last time he saw his son alive and of receiving the "ransom letter," demanding payment of $10,000.

Franks expressed hope that Leopold and Loeb would be hanged. He said he would be glad to spring the trap himself.

"I realize, of course that the death of these two cannot bring my son back to life," he said, "But my duty now is to other parents and sons. Society is not safe as long as they are alive. Even if they are adjudged insane. I think they should be hanged just the same."

American Fliers Cross East China Sea In Planes

SHANGHAI, June 4.—Two of the three American round the world planes flew successfully across the East China Sea, from Japan to China today. The third plane, that of Lieut. Lowell Smith, commander of the flight failed to take off satisfactorily and was forced to remain off Shantou, Japan.

Lieuts. Leigh Wade and Eric Nelson, after hovering a while awaiting their commander, flew on from Kagoshima and arrived at Shanghai without mishap.

The American Consul is understood to have sent an engineer to provide Lieut. Smith with all possible assistance in making necessary repairs to his plane and it was hoped the flight commander would catch up with his comrades here tomorrow.

would be poor. But the Count is a practical business man and President of the Stomatol company of Chicago, which manufactures tooth paste.

His bride's flashing smile would have made a wonderful "ad" for the Count's company as she confessed they had only known each other a month. The count returned from a visit to his home in Sweden armed with a note of identification to Peggy. "And it was love at first sight, they both agreed."

Peggy who started life as Margaret Upton, a Virginia beauty, and rose through adventures, matrimony and otherwise, to become America's most talked of woman, radiated the happiness of a back-country bride as she nestled under her tall husband's arm.

So pretty Peggy found the man at last and became a Countess at the same time. Her first husband was Everett Archer of Denver. They eloped. It cannot be told how many years ago because Peggy is now only 28. The marriage was annulled after six months. Archer was a millionaire.

Then came her second marriage, to Sherburne Hopkins, prominent in Washington society. Divorce followed in two years.

Hopkins was a millionaire.

Next was J. Stanley Joyce, a Chicago lumberman. After a sensational trial, he divorced her Nov. 9, 1921.

Joyce was a millionaire.

Between husbands, Peggy starred on stage and screen and at last two men shot themselves because their rapture was unrequited. One of these a South American, committed suicide in Peggy's hotel in Paris.

The next day in an interview she begged to know:

"Oh, why do men run after me? What is the secret of my fatal charm?"

Asked about this, the tall, handsome Count smiled enigmatically.

Refuses To Talk Or Let His Council Listen

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Harry M. Daugherty refused to appear before the Senate committee on the grounds that it is without authority to conduct the investigation. The refusal to face his accusers was made in a letter to Senator Brookhart. He based his refusal on the decision in the habeas corpus case of his brother, Mal Daugherty. The former attorney general said he believed the committee is engaged in a "desperate attempt" to blacken his character, and notified the committee that after today he would no longer permit his counsel to attend the hearings for him.

Joint Recital To Be Given Friday Night

The pupils in dramatic art and music of Mrs. L. C. Strange and Mrs. Sam Werner will give a joint recital at the Methodist Church Friday night of this week.

The event is being looked forward to with much pleasure by parents and friends of the talented children, knowing that it will be a rare treat to hear them in the very interesting program planned.

Mrs. Strange and Mrs. Werner have a just right to feel proud of their classes, the progress they have made and the promise ahead of each member.

Those who will participate in the dramatic art features will be:

Mary Edith Forrest, Mary Jane Crow, Thyra Huggins, Alma Louise Riddell, Carrie Elizabeth Messing, Dorothy Cogdell, Mary Martha Strange, Francis Chatham and Minnie Lou Matthews and those in music will be Doris Bolting, Evelyn Knoff and Odell Matthews.

The public is invited to this joint recital.

RICHLAND GETS BIG WELL ON THE BROWN TUESDAY

The Richland oil pool sprang into prominence as a real field Tuesday when the Pat Brown test, being drilled by the Sun Company, and is reported making around 2,000 barrels. This is the best well yet brought in at Richland and has resulted in big throngs going from here today to join in the activity there. There are several other tests now down to an interesting depth and will be drilled in this week. Latest reports are that the new well is making around 70 barrels hourly.

The Simms Oil Company has completed their No. 12 well on the Rose tract for an initial flow of 3,000 barrels a day, according to reports today.

The Simms company has a dozen completed wells on the same tract with an good daily output. The well is an off-set to the well recently completed by the Trinity & Brazos Valley Railway company on its right of way tract.

Shriners Go Into Business Session

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 4.—Shriners here for their annual gathering, paused from their play long enough today to transact the business of the session.

Between a joint concert of sixty bands, directed by John Philip Sousa, and the second big parade, a short time was given to taking up the important election of the outer guard, and selection of next year's convention city.

San Francisco or Los Angeles seemed to have the inside track in the race for the 1925 meeting place. Milwaukee and Denver will also be bidders, but it was believed they would start campaigns for the 1926 meeting.

Among the announced contenders for the position of outer guard, which in 12 years automatically carries advancement to imperial potentate, are: Leonard P. Stewart, Washington, D. C.; Dana S. Williams, Lewiston, Maryland; and John N. Sebrell, Norfolk, Va.

Another faciday was provided for the convention. Heavy rain at 4 a. m. broke up some of the night celebrations and forced the celebrators to sleep—more or less—but the clouds cleared away again at dawn.

To supply the inhabitants of New York with their daily bread requires the services of about 15,000 bakers.

McAdoo Maintains Substantial Lead In Florida Polls

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 4.—Wm. G. McAdoo held a substantial lead today in scattered returns from about one-fourth of the state in Tuesday's Democratic primary.

McAdoo and Senator Oscar Underwood of Alabama were the only candidates in the presidential primary and early returns indicated McAdoo will win by nearly two to one. Counting of returns was slow because of a long ticket and the Australian ballot.

The returns today indicated that John W. Martin and Frank E. Jennings, both of Jacksonville, will fight it out for top honors in the gubernatorial race, the most interesting contest as far as Florida was concerned. Sidney J. Catts, candidate for Governor, was running a poor third.

Wm. Jennings Bryan, candidate for Delegate at large to the New York convention, was leading his ticket on early returns.

METHODIST CHOIR ENJOYS PICNIC

The members of the Methodist church choir and friends held an outing at the Reunion Grounds Tuesday evening. The picnic spread is said to have done great credit to the ladies present while the men did justice to the viands. No accidents occurred except when Sam McCord drove into a bog hole and did not get out of it until nearly midnight. The affair was enjoyed by about 60 persons, who were glad to join the directress, Mrs. Oscar Denning in the diversion.

One of the architectural curiosities of London is an office building five stories high and only ten feet wide.

THE EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

COTTON

Waco News-Tribune

Now the cotton calculators say that on July 31, 1924, the cotton carry-over will be less than 1,600,000 bales, which has given the cotton buyers the shivers, particularly as the start of the present crop leads them to believe that it may, like its three immediate predecessors, prove inadequate to meet the demand of the millers of the world.

London advices say the British cotton market is now in a condition in which cautious buying is necessary. Foreign markets are said to be very bare of goods and buying, when under normal conditions they would be holding off. It is still hoped in England that America will produce a big crop, which is causing English spinners to defer purchases of raw material.

A glance at the last bulletin of the department of agriculture shows large exports of American cotton as the outstanding feature of the market situation.

It states that from the beginning of the present season up to April 25 the exports were 700,000 bales above those for the corresponding period of last season. By May 2 the excess had increased to 800,000 bales.

Great Britain had taken 328,000 bales more, Germany 309,000 bales more and France 86,000 bales more than last year. There were heavy exports to Russia. There is going to be the smallest cotton carry-over in a quarter of a century and there may be another famine crop in America this year.

Texas saved the day last year when it produced 47 per cent of the American crop. It may save the day this year by producing 50 per cent of the American crop. It is generally agreed that the world will need during the coming season an American crop of at least 12,000,000 bales and some claim that as much as 12,500,000 bales will be needed.

At the end of last season the carry-over was 2,573,000 bales which compared with a carry-over the season before last of 4,879,000 bales and a carry-over at the end of July, 1921, of 3,361,000 bales. The carry-over this year is placed at 1,600,000 bales and this tremendous shrinkage in the reserve supply of cotton has been due to a succession of three famine or inadequate American crops.

Is there another famine crop coming this year? June is here and the season is more backward than ever, lagging even to the oldest inhabitant.

MEN AND WOMEN IN NEWS OF THE DAY.

Above: HARRY K. THAW & LADY ASTOR
Below: W. E. D. STOKES & VIOLA KRAUS

Lady Astor, only American woman ever to sit in the British Parliament, had lively experiences while campaigning in Glasgow, Scotland, for the Unionist candidate, Captain Elliot. Communists tried to break up the meeting, but she stopped the uproar by singing "Keep the Home Fires Burning." Harry K. Thaw, free at last for killing Stanford White, has announced that he will settle $10 a day upon Evelyn Nesbit, his divorced wife, who is said to be earning $500 weekly in an Atlantic City, N. J., cabaret. The trial of W. E. D. Stokes, New York millionaire sportsman, charged in Chicago with attempting to induce witnesses to swear falsely in his unsuccessful divorce suit against his wife, has been postponed because of his illness. The charming Viola Kraus, of New York City, friend of the international whist wizard, Joseph B. Elwell, will return to America from Europe in the Fall, when efforts will be renewed to find the man who mysteriously murdered Edwell four years ago in his New York City home. Miss Kraus's sister, Mrs. Walter Lewison, is said to have valuable information for the District Attorney.

THREE RUNS WITHIN 24 HOURS FOR M. F. D.

The Fire Department has responded to three calls within the past twenty-four hours, and has done excellent work in preventing great loss of property.

The first call came Tuesday afternoon at 12:25 from the Mexia Steam Bakery. Only slight damage was done, most of it being confined to the roof of the building. The fire was caused from an overheated oven.

Wednesday morning at 4:05 a building belonging to W. O. Colwell on East Milan was almost completely destroyed by fire, about $2,000 damage was reported but was covered by insurance.

At 11:25 Wednesday morning an oil stove caught fire in the home of Mrs. T. E. Strain on East Titus Street but was extinguished before any great damage was done. Mrs. Strain sustained several burns in an attempt to throw the burning stove from the house.

"EXTRA" WORKS ONE DAY AND GETS SIXTY-THREE DOLLARS FOR "KLEIG EYES"

"Kleig eyes, the result of bids for fame via the silver sheet, are now worth money to whoever possesses them."

"This was discovered today when the California State Industrial Accident Commission awarded Frederick A. Johnson sixty-three dollars and fifty cents as compensation for a pair of them he asserted and proved he acquired during a one-day session at a local studio."

"The court, in awarding the damages, called Kleig eyes conjunctivitis, adding further enlightenment to all movie stars, extras and aspirants who previously were in doubt as to the name of the ailment."

"Johnson told the commission he worked for one day as an extra for the Goldwyn Producing Corporation. The set, he said, in which he strove to he depicted so that his shadow self could flicker before countless multitudes, was brilliantly illuminated with Kleig lights.

"This, he averred, caused his eyes to fail and he became a victim of conjunctivitis. From November 21, the date of his stab at celluloid renown, to December 28, 1922, his conjunctivitis, or Kleig eyes, stayed with him and he was totally disabled during all this time."

"The commission, after hearing his tale of sorrow, awarded him damages in assuagement of the worry his Kleig eyes had caused him. The award was made by the commission at the rate of eighteen dollars and fifty-two cents per week and the Royal Indemnity Company was named as defendant. The Goldwyn Producing Corporation was relieved from all liability."

"Interest in the verdict is said to be great in the film colony in Hollywood."

Undoubtedly, this liberal award for a simple case of conjunctivitis will "encourage" and make fashionable the malady.—Western Optical World.

New Silk Hose Solves Summer Girl's Stocking Problem

CHICAGO.—Dancing, golfing, a year-round recreation; golfing and tennis that follow the sun to the south and back again are all pastimes that tax the weave and fabric of the hose the popular girl wears, and the temper of the girl. It is a sorry thing to kick a hole through a perfectly new stocking, and just as sad to lack a sufficient number of pairs of the right colored hose.

To meet this serious problem that is trailing into the coming season, the makers of the brilliant multi-colored hose, there is a new Burson dollar hose of silk and fine in all the colors that a multiplied rainbow might show. They look like a newly blossomed bed of tulips with an added silken sheen like a sprinkling of star dust. Any woman who knows the fitted-in-the-knit hose knows that nothing—not rough laundrying nor careless hard wear—can spoil their shape. The buyer takes no chances because the stockings are only a dollar a pair and at that price, the girl on a limited dress budget can have all the bright hose she wants. Stockings, this season, must match nothing unless they are a part of the all-white costumes that are coming over from Paris. They must not be black and they must scorn the color of the shoes beneath them. They may be silver-gray or any shade of nude if the wearer is conservative in her tastes, but most of the hosiery tripping brilliantly into vogue has no concern whatever with the rest of the costume. Carefully chosen, like the bright shoes of last year, they will add much brilliance to the summer.

BULLFROG BETTER MOUSE THAN CAT

CHICKASHA, Okla., June 4.—If you don't care to keep a Kansas bull snake upon the premises to keep rats and mice away, get a bullfrog.
The mousing proclivities of a bullfrog are vouched for by Wade Fatheree, local sportsman, who captured a giant hopper on a fishing trip.
Incidentally, the frog secured a safe and steady future at a time when he was headed for the frying pan.
Fatheree tied the critter in the house awaiting execution. During the night the frog broke loose.
"I could hear him hopping about the house and then hear his jaws pop and a mouse squeal. He kept that up throughout the night. The next morning he had the appearance of a well-fed-up frog. Now he has a home with me," Fatheree declared.
Fatheree says he wouldn't trade the frog for a flock of tomatos.

Miss M. Froese is leaving today for a visit with her mother in Kentucky. She will then go to visit her sister in Indiana.

GAINED 21 POUNDS TAKING TANLAC

MRS. THOMPSON SAYS FIRST BOTTLE BROUGHT GRATIFYING CHANGE IN CONDITION.

A gain of 21 lbs. in weight and the best of health is what Mrs. Christine Thompson, P. O. Box 288, Bracketville, Texas, declares the Tanlac treatment brought her.
Mrs. Thompson also has many devoted friends in Muskegon, Okla., where she formerly resided at 713 S. Main St. Attributing her present splendid health to the help she received from Tanlac in 1921, Mrs. Thompson, said:
"Before taking Tanlac indigestion had troubled me for 4 or 5 years. After eating I would bloat badly and have a pressure of gas on my heart that kept me feeling miserable for hours. At times spots like sparks of fire would float before my eyes and I would get almost blind from dizziness. Finally I got so run-down, nervous and weak I could hardly get through the day.

"Before I finished my first bottle of Tanlac I felt a wonderful change coming over me. My appetite picked up. I went to eating things I couldn't eat before and it wasn't long until my troubles all went away.
"After Tanlac stopped my indigestion and nervousness and I got so I could relish my food and sleep well at night I started gaining weight also. I now weigh 21 lbs. more than I did when I began taking Tanlac and am enjoying the best of health. I have heard lots of other people praise Tanlac, too, and I know from my own experience that it is wonderful."
Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept No Substitutes. Over 40 million bottles sold.
Tanlac Vegetable Pills are made and recommended by the manufacturers of Tanlac.—(Adv.)

Hints From a House- Wife's Kitchen Diary

IN THE SPRING—ENAMELED WARE PAIRS

A woman who believes in taking advantage of all the winter sales of housewives' utensils was wandering through an enameled ware department recently. Her attention was arrested by two women, one of whom was buying four enameled-ware water pails. Her companion said: "When you live in a city and have water on every floor, what do you want with four water pails?" To which the buyer replied: "In the first place, spring cleaning is not far away, and I know by long experience that nothing is so convenient to use, nor such a saving of labor, at that strenuous time, as water pails—one for scrub water and one for rinsing water. With four pails two people can work at once with great saving of time." "Besides," she continued, "when the first mild spring weather comes, not warm enough to begin with ice again and yet mild enough to worry a bit about milk and such things, I find very cold water in an enameled-ware pail an excellent refrigerator. Milk cans and jars of butter, set in the pail, will keep sweet, and there is no danger of the enameled ware being rusted, as is the case when metal pails are used."

A NEW WAY TO COOK RICE

South Carolinians think they know all about rice and the methods by which it may be prepared. Nevertheless, a South Carolinian admitted at a Sunday supper recently that he was obliged to come north to meet the combination of rice and apples. As he highly approved of the novel dish, it may be taken for granted that it will be welcomed in other quarters. It, moreover, has the advantage of being easily prepared and of being fully as good when warmed over as when fresh. Butter an enameled-ware bake dish and put in three or four good-sized apples, pared, cored and cut up. Add two cupsful of boiled rice and one cupful of sugar, half a teaspoonful of cinnamon and a little grated nutmeg. Just before putting in the oven, pour over two tablespoonfuls of cold water. Cook in a slow oven until the apples are very thoroughly cooked into the rice. If it is more convenient, this dish can be prepared at noon and heated again for supper.

HOW TO BOIL FISH WHOLE

Fish is an important article of diet, but some people find fried fish difficult to digest. A codfish steak, while it is very nice fried, is more digestible boiled. It used to be difficult to boil a codfish steak (even when wrapped in a cloth) without its breaking, but in the small oval enameled-ware boilers which are provided with a tray, cod and halibut steak can be cooked perfectly with no trouble. Lift the tray with the cooked fish upon it out of the kettle and slip the fish off on the platter. A very nice sauce for boiled fish, and a change from the regulation cream sauce, is made by cooking canned tomatoes in an enameled-ware saucepan until very soft. Rub through a sieve with an enameled-ware spoon, add a teaspoonful of butter, salt and pepper to taste; then pour over the fish.

FUNNELS THAT ARE SAFE

Ladies, dippers, skimmers and spoons of enameled ware we all are familiar with, as constant assistants in the kitchen, but all housewives do not appreciate the value of enameled-ware funnels. These are most useful in filling jars of preserves and glasses of jelly and in the preparation of fruit juices. They are not less useful for sauces, especially when such sauces contain vinegar or active acids of any kind. Two sizes of these funnels will be found a welcome addition to any kitchen equipment.

Mexia Split Doubleheader With Waco Indians

LOST GAME IS HARD FOUGHT THROUGHOUT 12 ROUNDS

A large crowd of fans gathered at Gusher Park Tuesday afternoon to witness the doubleheader between Mexia and Waco. The teams were generous to each other, each taking only one. Waco won the first game and Mexia the second.

They will meet again today. Ludwick and Jeffries twirled for the Gushers in the first game and Bond the second.

Schmid went the full twelve innings for Waco in the first and Rodriguez pitched the second.

Schmid got away to a bad start but his team mates were well pleased with his work and when Strickland tripped with the bases full in the 12th round Waco won the bitterly contested game, 10 to 5.

Bond did stellar work in the pitcher's box in the second game for the Gushers and won by the score of 5-1.

The triple by Strickland has his only blow of the first game in six times up, but Kelly, Hall and Melver, managed to hit safely three times each, Ludwick being knocked out of the box. Red Hall crashed out two doubles in the first game and another in the second. Strickland also doubled in the abbreviated contest. Heving and Bryan, both of the Mexia club, hit the only homer of the day in the first game. Butler obtained two hits in each game.

Champion Jockey at Tia Juana Rated Among Turf's Great Riders

CHICAGO—Joe Wood, contract jockey for the International Stable and winner of the gold spurs as the champion at the Tia Juana winter meeting, is regarded by experts as one of the best race riders developed in recent years.

He is a Canadian boy, 17 years old, and has been riding less than a year. At Tia Juana, which opened last Thanksgiving and closed April 20, Wood rode fifty-six winners, forty-four seconds and thirty-eight thirds. This record gave him an official ranking among American jockeys as second to Ivan Parke.

He will ride on the eastern circuits this summer and be among the star pig skin artists at the Hawthorne meeting at Chicago in July and August. The old Hawthorne track has been remodeled. With its destinies in the capable hands of Joseph A. Murphy, Charles T. Design, Albert Sabath and other influential Chicago men, the summer meeting at this once famous course promises to be highly successful, with oral betting permitted.

George Walker, trainer for the International Stable, and for seven years leading money winner among trainers in Europe, has taken keen interest in Wood and helped develop him. He believes the boy will take his place eventually among the great riders that have made history on the American turf.

Better Luck is the star of the International Stable's string. This four-year-old broke the Tia Juana track record at three-quarters of a mile which he covered in 1:11.1-5 and Runstar, winner of the $50,000 Cofferth handicap, was among the horses that finished behind him.

World Famous Death Ray Used By Texas Man

VICTORIA, June 4.—Accounts from England and France telling of the great destructive power of the "death ray" invention of Grindell Matthews, recalls to the minds of residents of Victoria a similar machine demonstrated here during the war by Frank Weiss, expert electrician now employed at Cuero.

In the presence of several prominent citizens of Victoria, Weiss demonstrated a transformer which generated electricity from the air without any outside connections. It was built of magnetic insulated wire in coils with Swedish iron for magnetic coils.

Two of these machines built by Weiss and placed about eight feet between them, melting and crumbling steel plates and reducing pieces of wood to ashes instantly.

Weiss destroyed the machines immediately after he built and tested them and in the process of construction, burned his arms and body severely.

His assistant, J. J. Sloan, now proprietor of a local garage, was also badly burned while winding the coils.

Weiss, a native of Germany, offered his invention to the War Department upon condition that he be given his citizenship in this country.

War Department experts examined reports, were astonished by its possibilities but no action toward its adoption was ever made.

ELINOR GLYN'S MESSAGE ABOUT "THREE WEEKS"

By ELINOR GLYN

(Mrs. Glyn, who acted Director Alan Cranston in filming for Goldwyn Corporation her novel, "Three Weeks," the screen version of which comes to the National Theatre on Thursday for three days, has written the following message to the public.)

I do not think it is often that an author can say that his work has been correctly interpreted on the screen—and that is why it gives me so much pleasure to tell of the making of "Three Weeks," which goes out all over the world just as I meant it to be, the story of a great love, not a sensual record of passion. Friends of the book will now have the opportunity of seeing it in pictures. And if at first they do not recognize the opening scenes as belonging to the story, it is because they were only vaguely alluded to in one or two chapters, not actually described. But they were in my mind, and they show the home environment of "The Lady," the life in the Palace that she was obliged to endure with the dissolute King, her husband in name only. And when that is established, we then get to Paul's home, Verdane Place, in peaceful England, on the eve of his departure for a trip abroad, to Europe, that humorous English couple, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. L., the Pauls' happy daughter, and from then onward, the picture moves exactly as the romance in the book, never being explained for the exigencies of the silver sheet—but the spirit is there, the heart of tenderness, love and passion and love's twin sister—mercy, and so to the final tableau, when the spirit has been beyond earthly things, and Paul's rest and consolation. The Lady paid the price of breathing the life of man with her life—but love's eternal flame burned on.

Every scene has been a joy to make. I wrote the scenario in England, and came to California six months ago to begin production. I wanted to get into it all the salient points of the book, and yet carry it along with that sustained interest, which is so necessary in a cinema. And with the able assistance of Mr. Carey Wilson, we made what I hope is a living, breathing picture.

Then perfect types had to be found for the various parts. I never had a doubt about Allen Tringle for "The Lady." She represents exactly what I want my Queen to be—a person of dignity and refinement, with the passion of the slave, and none of the vulgar vulgarity which some mistaken people weave into the idea of the part.

Section 8. The fact that the City of Mexia is at the present time without a charter and that the public interests require the adoption of a charter, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity for the suspension of the rules requiring ordinances to be read upon more than one day and for the immediate taking effect of this ordinance, and such rules are hereby suspended, and it is ordained that this ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its passage and approval.

Passed and approved this 27th day of May, 1924.

DR. ELIOT'S REPLY TO DR. BUTLER

Letter of President Emeritus of Harvard, to Fred W. Smith, New York, Chairman of Committee of 1,000 for Law Enforcement.

"You tell me that the citizens committee of 1,000 believe that if the statement made by President Nicholas Murry Butler goes unchallenged 'it will have three very bad effects': first, it will encourage people to violate the prohibition laws and other laws; secondly, it will dishearten the students of American universities in their efforts to enforce prohibition legislation on university premises; thirdly, it will announce to the whole world that American constitutional government has failed.

"In my opinion, President Butler's statement will have no such effects. It will not increase the number of wets in the United States; it will dishearten no dry students, and it has no tendency whatever to prove that American constitutional government has failed.

"You ask me for a concise statement of the attitude of our educators toward the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Act. Of course, I have no authority to speak for our educators; but I am glad to have this opportunity to express three opinions, my own opinions, as follows:

"An overwhelming majority of the teachers and educators of our country believe in bringing up all children not to use alcohol in any form for the sake of their own health and of the public health, and also believe that the reasons for the prohibition of alcoholic drinks should be taught in all schools as part of the regular instruction in personal and community hygiene.

"The testimony now being given by manufacturers, physicians, nurses, and social workers as to the improvement in the condition of the population at large which has taken place since the Eighteenth Amendment was adopted is so potent that it will soon convince the great majority of the American population, both native and foreign, that the complete abstinence of alcoholic drinks will result in enormous benefits to any people that accomplishes it.

"The prohibitory legislation is being better and better enforced; and its complete enforcement will follow after a time upon the appointment of enforcing officers on the merit system instead of the 'spoils' system. The first batch of officers to enforce the prohibition legislation were all spoils men, that is, were appointed by members of the Senate and House of Representatives in their personal or party interests; and inevitably a large proportion of the men so appointed turned out to be either morally or mentally incompetent.

"I venture to add to these statements of opinion the following prophecy: "Neither the Republican nor the Democratic Party will venture to put a 'wet' plank into its party platform at the coming presidential election. Even the wettest of the politicians see the strong trend of public opinion toward the enforcement of all the laws against the manufacture and sale of alcoholic drinks. This prophecy is based on the extraordinary progress of democracy throughout the world during the past 10 years, a progress which has been characterized by active support of all promising means of promoting the public welfare. Among these means there is none better than the abolition of alcohol."

VETERANS TO PLACE BOULDERS ON GRAVE
OMAHA, Neb., June 4.—Four giant red boulders that once piled high in the bow at "Thruway," home of the late Senator John M. Thurston, are to be placed on the grave of Mrs. Thurston in Prospect Hill cemetery, here if relatives approve.
The work of transferring the boulders was undertaken by the Spanish War Veterans in honor of the life of the man whose famous speech at "Thruway" delivered before Congress, resulted in declaration of war on Spain.
The boulders were shipped here years ago by Senator Thurston who sold them in Montana.

GOING OUT TONIGHT WITH THAT PIMPLE SHOWING

The boy or girl who has nothing to worry them about the way they look are so much more noticeable when compared to the shrinking and backwardness of the ones who are afraid to mingle in the fun because they know how "unattractive" they must look on account of their pimply, blotchy or rough, eczemic skin.
Their one friend is Black and White Ointment, if they will just use it faithfully, because it will get rid of all those ugly bumps and make their skin soft, smooth and lovely. Then, to keep it that way, be sure to use Black and White Soap when you wash. They are both economically priced in liberal packages. The 50c size Ointment contains three times as much as the 25c size. All dealers have both the Ointment and the Soap.—(Adv.)

Champions Business Methods In Affairs of Fraternal Societies

MRS. MARY E. LARROCCA
CHICAGO—Fraternal societies of the United States, under business administrations, are entering upon the period of their greatest usefulness and prosperity, according to W. R. Shirley, of Muskogee, Okla., president of the National Fraternal Congress, in an address at the meeting of the Presidents Section here.
"Business methods in fraternal societies imply no sacrifice of fraternal spirit," said Mr. Shirley. "Business methods are filling empty pews in churches, financing charities, raising money in philanthropic movements. Fraternalism plus business means for fraternalism more efficient power for good in a wider field."
"But grave problems are ahead. Tennessee has passed a law taxing fraternal benefits and placing fraternal societies on the same level as old-line insurance companies. Such laws are unjust. Fraternal societies are not commercial. Fraternal insurance makes no profits. That is the answer of the fraternal orders."
"Whether to fight such laws in the courts or in politics is a question for future determination. But the time is here when the fraternalists must stand together as a unit in combatting such hostile legislation."
The National Fraternal Congress is composed of the great fraternal societies of America with an aggregate membership of 10,000,000 and aggregate insurance benefits of 10,000,000,000. Thomas F. McDonald, Chicago, of the Catholic Order of Foresters, is vice-president and Mrs. Mary E. LaRocca, Omaha, Supreme Guardian of Woodmen Circle, a member of the executive board.

Federation Head Sees Much Lone But More to Do

LOS ANGELES, Calif., June 4.—Mrs. Thomas G. Winter of Minneapolis, Minn., President of the Federation of Women's Clubs, made her report to the convention today. For four years Mrs. Winter has been the official head of the 2,500,000 women members of the organization. She retires after the present session.

The four years just ended Mrs. Winter said made the following contributions to Federation life:

1. The closer relation of state officers to each other and to the General Federation.
2. The increase in number of clubs in direct membership from two thousand to five thousand.
3. The movement toward universal membership made actual in fourteen states.
4. The organization of department work.
5. The democracy of the free news bulletin.
6. The purchase and equipping of headquarters.
7. Junior membership, organization and club institutes.

After reviving in detail the accomplishments of the organization in its four years of her administration, Mrs. Winter concluded:

"But these contacts with things that are going on all over the country reflect back in a renewed confidence in the vital forces and in our own dominating influence, our potency if we choose to avail ourselves of our chances for greatness."

"So the administration of 1920 to 1924 bequeaths to 1924 to 1928 a problem rather than an accomplishment, but a problem with a mighty hope. We have been only a push-off. May 1924 to 1928 fly where we have plodded!"

WHAT BOB TAYLOR THOUGHT OF INFIDELS

The following from the pen of Robert L. (Bob) Taylor, following a visit to a theatre where he heard a famous infidel berate Christianity is one of the greatest sermons ever preached in a few words:

"I sat in a great theatre in the national capital. It was thronged with youth and beauty old age and wisdom. I saw the man, the image of God, stand up on the stage and I heard him speak.

"His great gestures were perfection of grace, his voice was music, and his language was more beautiful than any I had ever heard from mortal lips.

"He painted picture after picture of the pleasures and joys and sympathies of the home. He enthroned love and preached the gospel of humanity like an angel. Then I saw him dip his brush in the ink of mortal blackness and blot out the beautiful picture he had painted; I saw him stab love dead at his feet; I saw him blot out the stars and sun and leave humanity and the universe in eternal darkness and eternal death.

"I saw him like the serpent of old warm himself into the paradise of human hearts and by his seductive eloquence and subtle devices and sophistry inject his fatal venom, under whose blight its powers faded. Its music was hushed, its sunshine was darkened and its soul was left a desert of faith and hope. "I saw him like a lawless, erratic waste, with only the new-made graves, a meteor without an orbit, sweep across the intellectual sky, brilliant only in self-consuming fire generated by friction with the indestructible and eternal truths of God.

"That man was the archangel of modern infidelity and I said: How true is holy writ which declared 'The fool hath said in his own heart there is no God.'

"Tell me not, O infidel, there is no God, no heaven, no hell! Tell me not, O infidel, there is no risen Christ!

"What intelligence less than God's? What motive power is it, if not God, that drives the throbbing engine of the human heart with ceaseless, tireless stroke, sending that crimson stream of life bounding and circulating through every vein and artery?

"When and what, if not God is this mystery we call mind! What is it that thinks and feels and knows and acts? O, who can deny the divinity that stirs within us?

"God is everywhere and in everything. His mystery is in every bud and blossom and leaf and tree; in every rock and vale and hill and mountain; in every spring and rivulet and river. The result of His wing is in every zephyr; its might is in every tempest. He dwells in the dark pavilions of every storm cloud. The lightning is His messenger and thunder His voice. His awful trade is in every earthquake and in every angry ocean. The heavens above us teem with His myriads of shining witnesses. The universe of solar systems, whose wheeling orbs course the crystal path of space, proclaim through their dread halls the domination of an omnipotent and eternal God."

SELF DEFENSE IS CLAIM IN BIG KILLING

Neighbors Testify Brown Was Benefactor To Them All When He Slew Enemies

Excitement was intense last night when a hurry call came to headquarters with the tip that a real riot had broken out in an exclusive neighborhood. Officers rushed to the scene and demanded an explanation.

"Why Mr. Brown did it—and we are all thanking him for killing them, too," declared one pretty woman, in the center of the large crowd on the sidewalk. "We've been nearly tormented to death with flies, mosquitoes, roaches and ants, but Mr. Brown came home tonight with some Fly-Flu and said he was going to rid the whole neighborhood of these pests. He did it too, and I guess we forgot ourselves in our joy and made a lot of noise.

"Just look in our houses now and you won't find a one of those awful insects living. They are every one stone dead—and they are all going to die that come around us again, now that we know what Fly-Flu will do."

Fly-Flu is certain death for every kind of insect or bug pest. Flies, Roaches, Mosquitoes, Waterbugs, Ants, Fleas or the bugs and lice that infect plants drop dead the minute they breathe it. Kills moths and their eggs. Yet it is absolutely harmless to humans or plants—is an excellent deodorant and cannot stain.

Price 50c for large bottle with handy sprayer free, at druggists, grocers and general stores. Substitutes can't and won't do the work. Get genuine Fly-Flu and end the insect pest.

Enthusiastic Lovers of Out-of-Door Life Will Find Ideal Opportunities For It In Canada's Mountain Camps

Summer brings a desire for high mountains to hosts who know the joys of vacationing among heaven-kissing hills. And no mountain district is more popular than the Canadian Rockies with their innumerable peaks of varying heights, their fascinating waterfalls, their vast glaciers and ice-fields, their abundant variety of trails—for tramping or riding—and a perfect maze of colorful lakes and sparkling streams, most of them well stocked with game fish. Picturesque hotels and cozy bungalow camps scattered among these peaks, are so popular that they are taxed to capacity all through the warm months.

A tide of tourists begins flowing into these resorts early in June and ebbs with the waning of September. Many remain late into the fall for autumn is one of the most glorious seasons known to the Canadian Rockies. Hiking is sheer delight in the cool, crisp autumn weather. The mountain sides are veritable artists' palettes, decked as they are with verdure of brilliant hues.

However, the greatest volume of visitors vacation during June, July and August and they will be found filling every hotel and camp, and the trails radiating in all directions are traveled daily by parties bound for surrounding points of interest. The new bungalow camps at Lake O'Hara, Wapta Lake, and Moraine Lake are in the Lake Louise region. By making one of these camps headquarters, it is possible to penetrate on foot or by pony into some of the sublimest of mountain scenery within easy distance. Moraine Lake Camp gives easy access to a fascinating region behind the Ten Peaks where excellent fishing may be enjoyed in Consolation Lake. From Lake O'Hara Camp, an interesting trail leads up to Mt. Biddle and Lake McArthur which form a wondrous picture. Lake Wapta Camp is within riding distance of Yoho Camp in the wonder valley of the same name and also of that green gem, Emerald Lake with its picturesque Swiss Chalet and cluster of cozy bungalows. Trails descend all the giant mountains in this section and weeks can be well spent here exploring its hidden charms. These camps provide comfortable accommodations and excellent cuisine at reasonable rates.

CONDUCTOR SIMS FREE OF NINETEEN YEARS TROUBLE

One of the most remarkable statements in connection with Karnak, the sensational new medicine that is being so widely discussed here, was made a few days ago by Mr. William Sims, 771 West Elm St., Springfield, Mo. Mr. Sims is the popular conductor on the Florida Special, crack passenger train on the Frisco between Kansas City and Memphis, and numbers his friends by the thousands.

"I would not take a block of the best business property in Springfield for the good Karnak has done me," declared Mr. Sims. "For over nineteen years I suffered day and night from rheumatism and although I spent a small fortune on treatments and faithfully took the baths at Hot Springs nothing helped me. I finally got so I could not even walk or stand on my feet and of course I had to give up my run. It looked like my usefulness was about ended.

"But Karnak has knocked my rheumatism sky high and built me up to where I feel as fit as a fiddle. The medicine has simply been a godsend to me, and if anybody wants this statement verified let them write me or call me."

The statement of Mr. Sims is typical of the hundreds being made every day by those who have experienced the remarkable health-restoring qualities of this sensational new medicine. Karnak is sold in Mexia by the Mexia Drug Co.—(Adv.)

Insanity Will Be Defense In Franks Murder Trial

HARRY DAUGHERTY DEFIES SENATE COMMITTEE

Blind Man Starts on Tandem Trip to New York

Millions Will Be Used In Effort To Clear Men

By EDWARD C. DEER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
CHICAGO, June 4.—Defense of Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, young millionaire slayers of Robert Franks, himself the son of a multi-millionaire, will be insanity. Alienists and psychiatrists will be called to give their expert opinions that the boys were suffering from diseased minds and were entirely irresponsible for the slaying of the 14 year old school boy.

The defense, headed by Clarence Darrow, famous attorney, believes that if the state presses its charges attempting to connect the student-murderers with additional crimes, including the murder of Freeman Louis Tracy, their fellow student in the University of Chicago, and the mutilation of Charles Beam, chauffeur, it will aid in proving the contention that the boys are insane and committed the acts because of diseased and abnormal mentalities.

The defense will endeavor to show that the two 19 year old students committed the Franks crime and any others of which they may be guilty, without motives, whenever the fits of their insanity suggested such action.

Darrow has made it clear that no expense will be spared to save the boys from the gallows. The whole of combined fortunes of the Leopold and Loeb families, more than $15,000,000 has been placed at his disposal and he is ready for the greatest court fight of his long career.

One of the most important links in the chain of evidence against Leopold and Loeb was welded today when W. D. McNally, coroner's physician, announced that human blood had been found on the clothing worn by the two boys. Blood was also found on the floor mat of the rented ambulance and on a pair of rubber boots worn by Leopold.

"This evidence," Crowe pointed out, "is very important and will be used strongly in our case."

Crowe indicated some fear that the signed confession of Loeb and Leopold might be thrown out in the murder trial and is making every effort to accumulate sufficient evidence to convict them should this happen.

Hints that Leopold and Loeb would attempt suicide today caused Sheriff Peter M. Hoffman to throw double guards around them.

Every article brought into the cells where the boys are held is being examined to prevent delivery of weapons or poison of any kind. Two guards are stationed before each cell. Both Loeb and Leopold expressed a desire to commit suicide rather than die on the gallows should they be convicted of the murder.

"I shudder at the thought of being executed," Leopold said, his proud air retreating after one day behind prison bars. "I would greatly prefer to end my own life if I must lose it."

To Leopold, boastful of killing Franks and evading the law until his comrade confessed and implicated him, suicide would be more welcome than hanging.

The two youthful prisoners, both 19, who admitted they killed young Franks, "just for the fun of it," were slowly adjusting themselves to prison routine. Leopold found more difficulty in mingling with other prisoners than did Loeb.

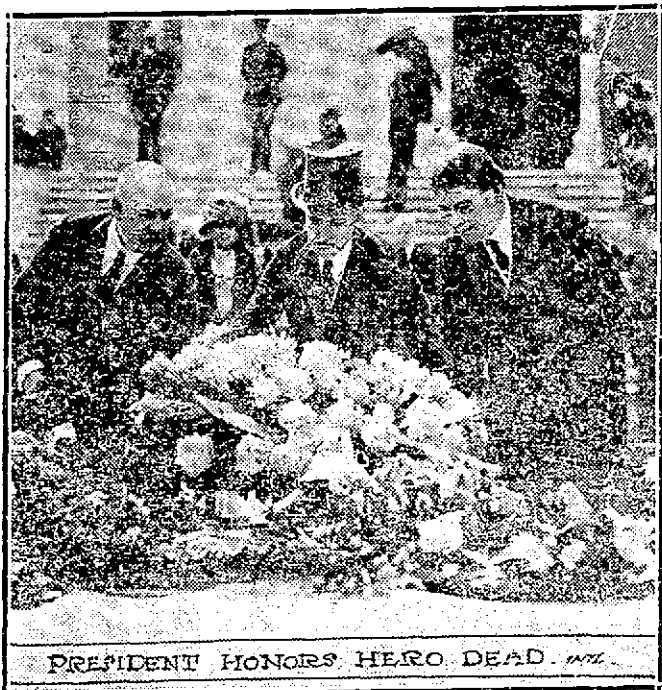

"That guy thinks he's too good for us guys—he'd better lay off that Bitzie stuff," one of the prisoners, a bandit said concerning Leopold.

Loeb, always showing himself the softer of the two, found more favor in the eyes of his jail mates. He asked for regular prison garb, discarding his $200 suit. He amused himself during a recreation period by teaching a colored boy prisoner the alphabet.

A striking difference between the two boys was exhibited at meal time. Both boys had their meals sent in from their millionaire homes.

Leopold, occupying a cell together with Thomas Doherty, a robber, ate

Pretty Peggy Is Married To Man Of Noble House

By FRANK GETTY
NEW YORK, June 4.—"This is my first real marriage—and my last. Oh, at last I'm in love," and Peggy Hopkins Joyce, radiant, raised her beautiful arms ecstatically and smiled upon her new and fourth husband, Count Gosta Morner of Sweden.

For pretty Peggy, for want of whose love men have killed themselves and whose priceless jewels and millionaire husbands and fascinating smile have long been the sensation of two continents, has married again.

"This time for love," the actress said, happily, "Love at first sight—the love I've been waiting for all my life."

Peggy's new husband is descended from an old noble house of Sweden, but he is a young, strapping business man, six feet three, aristocratic and immaculate in appearance. He is 21 years old and when they signed the register in the Swedish Lutheran church at Atlantic City last week, Peggy gave her age as 28.

The stage which Peggy has raced for many years will know her no more, her new husband says. He will take her to Paris in the fall—for a rest, the Count explained. Then Sweden and the Baronial halls among the Fjords where the parental blessing awaits them.

Peggy Joyce had always declared she would never marry again. And had added that her next husband his meal in silence. He did not speak to his cell mate and ate on the opposite side of the little room.

Loeb graciously invited his cell mate, Edward Donker, also a robber to share his meal. The two ate side by side on the edge of a cot and ate heartily. They conversed freely and easily.

Presenting of evidence to the grand jury will be resumed this afternoon. State's Attorney Crowe indicated he would take his time, calling as many witnesses as possible and predicted it would be several days before any indictment would be returned.

Jacob Franks, father of the slain youth, was one of the most important witnesses called at the first session of the grand jury. He told of the last time he saw his son alive and of receiving the "ransom letter," demanding payment of $10,000.

Franks expressed hope that Leopold and Loeb would be hanged. He said he would be glad to spring the trap himself.

"I realize, of course that the death of these two cannot bring my son back to life," he said, "But my duty now is to other parents and sons. Society is not safe as long as they are alive. Even if they are adjudged insane. I think they should be hanged just the same."

American Fliers Cross East China Sea In Planes

SHANGHAI, June 4.—Two of the three American round the world planes flew successfully across the East China Sea, from Japan to China today. The third plane, that of Lieut. Lowell Smith, commander of the flight failed to take off satisfactorily and was forced to remain off Shanghai, Japan.

Lieuts. Leigh Wade and Eric Nelson, after hovering a while awaiting their commander, flew on from Kagoshima and arrived at Shanghai without mishap.

The American Consul is understood to have sent an engineer to provide Lieut. Smith with all possible assistance in making necessary repairs to his plane and it was hoped the flight commander would catch up with his comrades here tomorrow.

was poor. But the Count is a practical business man and President of the Stomatol company of Chicago, which manufactures tooth paste.

His bride's flashing smile would have made a wonderful "ad" for the Count's company as she confessed they had only known each other a month. The Count returned from a visit to his home in Sweden armed with a note of identification to Peggy. "And it was love at first sight, they both agreed."

Peggy who started life as Margaret Upton, a Virginia beauty, and rose through adventures, matrimonial and otherwise, to become America's most talked of woman, radiated the happiness of a back-country bride as she nestled under her tall husband's arm.

So pretty Peggy found the man at last and became a Countess at the same time. Her first husband was Everett Archer of Denver. They eloped. It cannot be told how many years ago because Peggy is now only 28. The marriage was annulled after six months. Archer was a millionaire.

Then came her second marriage, to Sherburne Hopkins, prominent in Washington society. Divorce followed in two years.

Hopkins was a millionaire. Next was J. Stanley Joyce, a Chicago lumberman. After a sensational trail, he divorced her Nov. 9, 1921.

Joyce was a millionaire. Between husbands, Peggy starred on stage and screen and at last two men shot themselves because their rapture was unrequited. One of these a South American, committed suicide in Peggy's hotel in Paris.

The next day in an interview she begged to know:

"Oh, why do men run after me? What is the secret of my fatal charm?"

Asked about this, the tall, handsome Count smiled enigmatically.

Refuses To Talk Or Let His Council Listen

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Harry M. Daugherty refused to appear before the Senate committee on the grounds that it is without authority to conduct the investigation. The refusal to face his accusers was made in a letter to Senator Brookhart. He based his refusal on the decision in the habeas corpus case of his brother, Mal Daugherty. The former attorney general said he believed the committee is engaged in a "desperate attempt" to blacken his character, and notified the committee that after today he would no longer permit his counsel to attend the hearings for him.

Mrs. Strange and Mrs. Werner have a just right to feel proud of their classes, the progress they have made and the promise ahead of each member.

Those who will participate in the dramatic art features will be:

Mary Edith Forrest, Mary Jane Crow, Thyra Huggins, Alma Louise Riddell, Carrie Elizabeth Measor, Dorothy Cogdell, Mary Martha Strange, Francis Chatham and Minnie Lou Matthews and those in music will be Doris Bolling, Evelyn Knoff and Odell Matthews.

The public is invited to this joint recital.

McAdoo Maintains Substantial Lead In Florida Polls

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 4.—Wm. G. McAdoo held a substantial lead today in scattered returns from about one-fourth of the state in Tuesday's Democratic primary.

McAdoo and Senator Oscar Underwood of Alabama were the only candidates in the presidential primary and early returns indicated McAdoo will win by nearly two to one. Counting of returns was slow because of a long ticket and the Australian ballot.

The returns today indicated that John W. Martin and Frank E. Jennings, both of Jacksonville, will fight it out for top honors in the gubernatorial race, the most interesting contest as far as Florida was concerned. Sidney J. Catts, candidate for Governor, was running a poor third.

Wm. Jennings Bryan, candidate for delegate at large to the New York convention, was leading his ticket on early returns.

METHODIST CHOIR ENJOYS PICNIC

The members of the Methodist church choir and friends held an outing at the Reunion Grounds Tuesday evening. The picnic spread is said to have done great credit to the ladies present while the men did justice to the viands. No accidents occurred except when Sam McCord drove into a bog hole and did not get out of it until nearly midnight. The affair was enjoyed by about 60 persons, who were glad to join the directress, Mrs. Oscar Denning in the diversion.

One of the architectural curiosities of London is an office building five stories high and only ten feet wide.

THE WORLD IN TABLOID

WASHINGTON.—Supporters of the Ford offer for Muscle Shoals, and the opponents of Ford, agreed on a proposal to defer action on the project until the December session.

WASHINGTON.—House republican leaders laid before President Coolidge a substitute farm relief measure to take the place of the defeated McNary-Haugen bill and providing for the utilization of resources of war to finance a corporation to finance export marketing of farm product surpluses. If the president indicates his approval it will be rushed through congress, if not it will be dropped.

KANSAS CITY.—All bands attending the Shrine convention numbering 2500 pieces gave a concert under the direction of John Philip Sousa, before a great crowd. Business sessions of the convention have started.

TOKIO.—According to reports from throughout Japan, many Japanese are killing themselves because of the exclusion clause in the American immigration bill. They feel that exclusion is a personal affront rather than a national question.

CONWAY, Ark.—With his five grown children seated among the spectators, Virgil A. Sellers, 42, a farmer, was awarded a diploma on completion of his course in Opportunity school. Denied early educational advantages, Sellers attended school with his children.

BERLIN.—Chancellor Marx formally gave notice that Germany stands upon the basis of the foreign policy previously pursued, acceptance and accomplishments of experts report.

DALLAS.—Two firemen were severely burned, half a dozen others were slightly hurt, and several persons were rescued in a fire which destroyed a rooming house this morning. A gas explosion during the fire caused the injuries to the firemen.

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Diamonds worth $600,000 are buried on the outskirts of Kansas City, Mrs. Amanda Dalton, 76, widow of the once notorious outlaw, Captain Kit Dalton, confessed. She said her husband buried the jewels years ago and before his death in 1920, told her the exact location of the loot. Mrs. Dalton says she is willing to surrender her rights to the fortune for a small sum in cash. She needs money to save her from the poor house.

WACO.—The badly mutilated body of Ray King of Hamlin, Texas, a student at Meridian College, was found on the Santa Fe tracks at Morgan by railway employees. It is believed that he fell from a freight train last night.

INDIANAPOLIS.—Senator Samuel Ralston discouraged efforts of Indiana democrats to launch a formal boom for his nomination for the presidency. He opposed the move to get the state convention to endorse him. He declared that he is not a candidate. As a result the Indiana delegation will probably go to the convention uninstructed.

LAKE HURST, N. J.—After having floated aimlessly for four hours in a fog between Trenton and the Navy Air Base here, the giant Navy dirigible Shenandoah, was placed in its hangar shortly after 8 a. m. today. It was the fourth attempt to land the huge navy aircraft, three others failing because the dirigible had become light through using so much fuel in its flight over New York and Pennsylvania Tuesday.

RICHLAND GETS BIG WELL ON THE BROWN TUESDAY

The Richland oil pool sprang into prominence as a real field Tuesday when the Pat Brown test, being drilled by the Sun Company, and is reported making around 2,000 barrels. This is the best well yet brought in at Richland and has resulted in big throngs going from here today to join in the activity there. There are several other tests now down to an interesting depth and will be drilled in this week.

Latest reports are that the new well is making around 70 barrels hourly.

The Simms Oil Company has completed their No. 12 well on the Rose tract for an initial flow of 3,000 barrels a day, according to reports today.

The Simms company has a dozen completed wells on the same tract with a good daily output. The well is an off-set to the well recently completed by the Trinity & Brazos Valley Railway company on its right of way tract.

Shriners Go Into Business Session

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 4.—Shriners here for their annual gathering, paused from their play long enough today to transact the business of the session.

Between a joint concert of sixty bands, directed by John Philip Sousa, and the second big parade, a short time was given to taking up the important election of the outer guard, and selection of next year's convention city.

San Francisco or Los Angeles seemed to have the inside track in the race for the 1925 meeting place. Milwaukee and Denver will also be bidders, but it was believed they would start campaigns for the 1926 meeting. Among the announced contenders for the position of outer guard, which in 12 years automatically carries advancement to imperial potentate, are: Leonard P. Stewart, Washington, D. C.; Dana S. Williams, Lewiston, Maryland; and John N. Sebrell, Norfolk, Va.

Another faciday was provided for the convention. Heavy rain at 4 a. m. broke up some of the night celebrations and forced the celebrators to sleep—more or less—but the clouds cleared away again at dawn.

To supply the inhabitants of New York with their daily bread requires the services of about 15,000 bakers.

THE EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

COTTON

Waco News-Tribune

Now the cotton calculators say that on July 31, 1924, the cotton carry-over will be less than 1,600,000 bales, which has given the cotton buyers the shivers, particularly as the start of the present crop leads them to believe that it may, like its three immediate predecessors, prove inadequate to meet the demand of the millers of the world.

London advices say the British cotton market is now in a condition in which cautious buying is necessary. Foreign markets are said to be very bare of goods and buying, when under normal conditions they would be holding off. It is still hoped in England that America will produce a big crop, which is causing English spinners to defer purchases of raw material.

A glance at the last bulletin of the department of agriculture shows large exports of American cotton as the outstanding feature of the market situation.

It states that from the beginning of the present season up to April 25 the exports were 700,000 bales above those for the corresponding period of last season. By May 2 the excess had increased to 800,000 bales.

Great Britain had taken 328,000 bales more, Germany 300,000 bales more and France 86,000 bales more than last year. There were heavy exports to Russia. There is going to be the smallest cotton carry-over in a quarter of a century and there may be another famine crop in America this year.

Texas saved the day last year when it produced 47 per cent of the American crop. It may save the day this year by producing 50 per cent of the American crop. It is generally agreed that the world will need during the coming season an American crop of at least 12,000,000 bales and some claim that as much as 12,500,000 bales will be needed.

At the end of last season the carry-over was 2,573,000 bales which compared with a carry-over the season before last of 4,879,000 bales and a carry-over at the end of July, 1921, of 3,364,000 bales. The carry-over this year is placed at 1,600,000 bales and this tremendous shrinkage in the reserve supply of cotton has been due to a succession of three famine or inadequate American crops.

Is there another famine crop coming this year? June is here and the season is more backward than ever, staggering even to the oldest inhabitant.

MEN AND WOMEN IN NEWS OF THE DAY.

Below: W. E. D. STOKES & VIOLA KRAUS

Lady Astor, only American woman ever to sit in the British Parliament, had lively experiences while campaigning in Glasgow, Scotland, for the Unionist candidate, Captain Elliot. Communists tried to break up the meetings, but she stopped the uproar by singing "Keep the Home Fires Burning." Harry K. Thaw, free at last for killing Stanford White, has announced that he will settle $10 a day upon Evelyn Nesbit, his divorced wife, who is said to be earning $500 weekly. The trial of W. E. D. Stokes, New York millionaire sportsman, charged in Chicago with attempting to induce witnesses to swear falsely in his unsuccessful divorce suit against his wife, has been postponed because of his illness. The charming Viola Kraus, of New York City, friend of the international whist wizard, Joseph B. Elwell, will return to America from Europe in the fall, when efforts will be renewed to find the man who mysteriously murdered Edwell four years ago in his New York City home. Miss Kraus's sister, Mrs. Walter Lewisohn, is said to have valuable information for the District Attorney.

THREE RUNS WITHIN 24 HOURS FOR M. F. D.

The Fire Department has responded to three calls within the past twenty-four hours, and has done excellent work in preventing great loss of property.

The first call came Tuesday afternoon at 12:25 from the Mexia Steam Bakery. Only slight damage was done, most of it being confined to the roof of the building. The fire was caused from an overheated oven.

Wednesday morning at 4:05 a building belonging to W. O. Colwell on East Milam was almost completely destroyed by fire, about $2,000 damage was reported but was covered by insurance.

At 11:25 Wednesday morning an oil stove caught fire in the home of Mrs. T. E. Strain on East Titus Street but was extinguished before any great damage was done. Mrs. Strain sustained several burns in an attempt to throw the burning stove from the house.

"EXTRA" WORKS ONE DAY AND GETS SIXTY-THREE DOLLARS FOR "KLEIG EYES"

"Kleig eyes, the result of bids for fame via the silver sheet, are now worth money to whoever possesses them.

"This was discovered today when the California State Industrial Accident Commission awarded Frederick A. Johnson sixty-three dollars and fifty cents as compensation for a pair of them he asserted and proved he acquired during a one-day session at a local studio.

"The court, in awarding the damages, called Kleig eyes conjunctivitis, adding further enlightenment to all movie stars, extras and aspirants who previously were in doubt as to the name of the ailment.

"Johnson told the commission he worked for one day as an extra for the Goldwyn Producing Corporation. The set, he said, in which he strove to be depicted so that his shadow self could flicker before countless multitudes, was brilliantly illuminated with Kleig lights.

"This, he averred, caused his eyes to fail and he became a victim of conjunctivitis. From November 21, the date of his stab at celluloid renown, to December 28, 1922, his conjunctivitis, or Kleig eyes, stayed with him and he was totally disabled during all this time.

"The commission, after hearing his tale of sorrow, awarded him damages in assuagement of the worry his Kleig eyes had caused him. The award was made by the commission at the rate of eighteen dollars and fifty-two cents per week and the Royal Indemnity Company was named as defendant. The Goldwyn Producing Corporation was relieved from all liability.

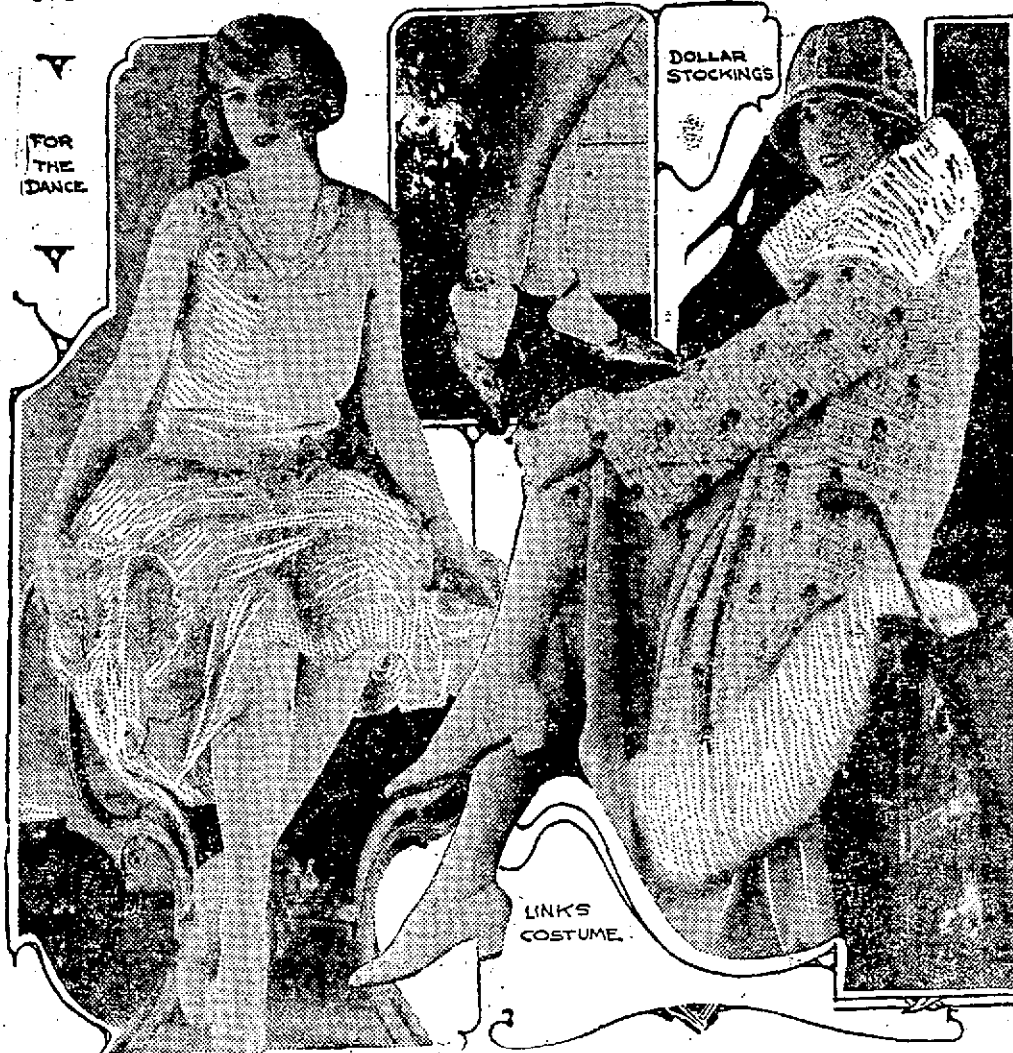

"Interest in the verdict is said to be great in the film colony in Hollywood."

"Undoubtedly, this liberal award for a simple case of conjunctivitis will 'encourage' and make fashionable the malady.—Western Optical World.

New Silk Hose Solves Summer Girl's Stocking Problem

CHICAGO.—Dancing, the new fad, a year-round recreation; golfing and tennis that follow the sun to the south and back again are all pastimes that tax the weave and fabric of the hose the popular girl wears, and the temper of the girl. It is a sorry thing to kick a hole through a perfectly new stocking, and just as sad to lack a sufficient number of pairs of the right colored hose.

To meet this serious problem that is trailing into the coming season, the makers of the brilliant multi-colored hose, there is a new Burson dollar hose of silk and fibre in all the colors that a multi-colored rainbow might show. They look like a newly blossomed bud like a sprinkling of star dust. Any woman who knows the fitted-in-the-knit hose knows that nothing—not rough laundrying nor careless hard wear—can spoil their shape. The buyer takes no chances because the stockings are only a dollar a pair and at that price, the girl on a limited dress budget can have all the bright hose she wants. Stockings, this season, must match nothing unless they are a part of the all-white costumes that are coming over from Paris. They must not be black and they must scorn the color of the shoes beneath them. They may be silver-gray or any shade of nude if the wearer is conservative in her tastes, but most of the hosiery tripping brilliantly into vogue has no concern whatever with the rest of the costume. Carefully chosen, like the bright shoes of last year, they will add much brilliance to the summer.

BULLFROG BETTER MOUSER THAN CAT

CHICKASHA, Okla., June 4.—If you don't care to keep a Kansas bull snake upon the premises to keep rats and mice away, get a bullfrog.

The mousing proclivities of a bullfrog are vouched for by Wade Fatheree, local sportsman, who captured a giant hopper on a fishing trip.

Incidentally, the frog secured a safe and steady future at a time when he was headed for the frying pan.

Fatheree tied the critter in the house awaiting execution. During the night the frog broke loose.

"I could hear him hopping about the house and then hear his jaws pop and a mouse squeal. He kept that up throughout the night. The next morning he had the appearance of a well-fed-up frog. Now he has a home with me," Fatheree declared.

Fatheree says he wouldn't trade the frog for a flock of tomatoes.

Miss M. Froese is leaving today for a visit with her mother in Kentucky. She will then go to visit her sister in Indiana.

GAINED 21 POUNDS TAKING TANLAC

MRS. THOMPSON SAYS FIRST BOTTLE BROUGHT GRATIFYING CHANCE IN CONDITION.

A gain of 21 lbs. in weight and the best of health is what Mrs. Christine Thompson, P. O. Box 288, Bracketville, Texas, declares the Tanlac treatment brought her.

Mrs. Thompson also has many devoted friends in Muscogee, Okla., where she formerly resided at 713 S. Main St. Attributing her present splendid health to the help she received from Tanlac in 1921, Mrs. Thompson, said:

"Before taking Tanlac indigestion had troubled me for 4 or 5 years. After eating I would bloat badly and have a pressure of gas on my heart that kept me feeling miserable for hours. At times spots like sparks of fire would float before my eyes and I would get almost blind from dizziness. Finally I got so run-down, nervous and weak I could hardly get through the day.

"Before I finished my first bottle of Tanlac I felt a wonderful change coming over me. My appetite picked up, I went to eating things I couldn't eat before and it wasn't long until my troubles all went away.

"After Tanlac stopped my indigestion and nervousness and I got so I could relish my food and sleep well at night I started gaining weight also. I now weigh 21 lbs. more than I did when I began taking Tanlac and am enjoying the best of health. I have heard lots of other people praise Tanlac, too, and I know from my own experience that it is wonderful."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept No Substitutes. Over 40 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are made and recommended by the manufacturers of Tanlac.—(Adv.)

Hints From a House- Wife's Kitchen Diary

Spring Dishes And Hints

IN THE SPRING—ENAMELED WARE PAIS

A woman who believes in taking advantage of all the winter sales of housewives' utensils was wandering through an enameled-ware department recently. Her attention was arrested by two women, one of whom was buying four enameled-ware water pails. Her companion said: "When you live in a city and have water on every floor, what do you want with four water pails?" To which the buyer replied: "In the first place, spring cleaning is not far away, and I know by long experience that nothing is so convenient to use, nor such a saving of labor, at that strenuous time, as water pails—one for scrub water and one for rinsing water. With four pails two people can work at once with great saving of time." "Besides," she continued, "when the first mild spring weather comes, not warm enough to begin with ice again and yet mild enough to worry a bit about milk and such things, I find very cold water in an enameled-ware pail an excellent refrigerator. Milk cans and jars of butter, set in the pail, will keep sweet, and there is no danger of the enameled ware being rusted, as is the case when metal pails are used."

A NEW WAY TO COOK RICE

South Carolinians think they know all about rice and the methods by which it may be prepared. Nevertheless, a South Carolinian admitted at a Sunday supper recently that he was obliged to come north to meet the combination of rice and apples. As he highly approved of the novel dish, it may be taken for granted that it will be welcomed in other quarters. It, moreover, has the advantage of being easily prepared and of being fully as good when warmed over as when fresh. Butter an enameled-ware bake dish and put in three or four good-sized apples, pared, cored and cut up. Add two cupsful of boiled rice and one cupful of sugar, half a teaspoonful of cinnamon and a little grated nutmeg. Just before putting in the oven, pour over two tablespoonfuls of cold water. Cook in a slow oven until the apples are very thoroughly cooked into the rice. If it is more convenient, this dish can be prepared at noon and heated again for supper.

HOW TO BOIL FISH WHOLE

Fish is an important article of diet, but some people find fried fish difficult to digest. A codfish steak, while it is very nice fried, is more digestible boiled. It used to be difficult to boil a codfish steak (even when wrapped in a cloth) without its breaking, but in the small oval enameled-ware boilers which are provided with a tray, cod and halibut steak can be cooked perfectly with no trouble. Lift the tray with the cooked fish upon it out of the kettle and slip the fish off on the platter. A very nice sauce for boiled fish, and a change from the regulation cream sauce, is made by cooking canned tomatoes in an enameled-ware saucepan until very soft. Rub through a sieve with an enameled-ware spoon, add a teaspoonful of butter, salt and pepper to taste; then pour over the fish.

FUNNELS THAT ARE SAFE

Ladles, dippers, skimmers and spoons of enameled ware we all are familiar with, as constant assistants in the kitchen, but all housewives do not appreciate the value of enameled-ware funnels. These are most useful in filling jars of preserves and glasses of jelly and in the preparation of fruit juices. They are not less useful for sauces, especially when such sauces contain vinegar or active acids of any kind. Two sizes of these funnels will be found a welcome addition to any kitchen equipment.

Mexia Split Doubleheader With Waco Indians

LOST GAME IS HARD FOUGHT THROUGHOUT 12 ROUNDS

A large crowd of fans gathered at Gusher Park Tuesday afternoon to witness the doubleheader between Mexia and Waco. The teams were generous to each other, each taking only one. Waco won the first game and Mexia the second.

They will meet again today. Ludwick and Jeffries twirled for the Gushers in the first game and Bond the second.

Schmid went the full twelve innings for Waco in the first and Rodriguez pitched the second.

Schmid got away to a bad start but his team mates were well pleased with his work and when Strickland tripled with the bases full in the 12th round Waco won the bitterly contested game, 10 to 5.

Bond did stellar work in the pitcher's box in the second game for the Gushers and won by the score of 5-1.

The triple by Strickland has his only blow of the first game in six times up, but Kelly, Hall and Melver, managed to hit safely three times each, Ludwick being knocked out of the box. Red Hall crashed out two doubles in the first game and another in the second. Strickland also doubled in the abbreviated contest. Heving and Bryan, both of the Mexia club, hit the only homer of the day in the first game. Butler obtained two hits in each game.

Champion Jockey at Tia Juana Rated Among Turf's Great Riders

CHICAGO—Joe Wood, contract jockey for the International Stable and winner of the gold spurs as the champion at the Tia Juana winter meeting, is regarded by experts as one of the best race riders developed in recent years.

He is a Canadian boy, 17 years old, and has been riding less than a year. At Tia Juana, which opened last Thanksgiving and closed April 20, Wood rode fifty-six winners, forty-four seconds and thirty-eight thirds. This record gave him an official ranking among American jockeys as second to Ivan Parke. He will ride on the eastern circuits this summer and be among the star pig skin artists at the Hawthorne meeting at Chicago in July and August. The old Hawthorne track has been remodeled. With its destinies in the capable hands of Joseph A. Murphy, Charles T. Essign, Albert Sabath and other influential Chicago men, the summer meeting at this once famous course promises to be highly successful, with oral betting permitted.

George Walker, trainer for the International Stable, and for seven years leading money winner among trainers in Europe, has taken keen interest in Wood and helped develop him. He believes the boy will take his place eventually among the great riders that have made history on the American turf.

Better Luck is the star of the International Stable's string. This four-year-old broke the Tia Juana track record at three-quarters of a mile which he covered in 1:11-5 and Runstar, winner of the $50,000 Coffroth handicap, was among the horses that finished behind him.

World Famous Death Ray Used By Texas Man

VICTORIA, June 4.—Accounts from England and France telling of the great destructive power of the "death ray" invention of Grindell Matthews, recalls to the minds of residents of Victoria a similar machine demonstrated here during the war by Frank Weiss, expert electrician now employed at Cuero.

In the presence of several prominent citizens of Victoria, Weiss demonstrated a transformer which generated electricity from the air without any outside connections. It was built of magnetic insulated wire in coils with Swedish iron for magnetic coils. Two of these machines built by Weiss and placed about eight feet between them, melting and crumbling steel plates and reducing pieces of wood to ashes instantly.

Weiss destroyed the machines immediately after he built and tested them and in the process of construction, burned his arms and body severely. His assistant, J. J. Sloan, now proprietor of a local garage, was also badly burned while winding the coils.

Weiss, a native of Germany, offered his invention to the War Department upon condition that he be given his citizenship in this country.

War Department experts examined reports, were astonished by its possibilities but no action toward its adoption was ever made.

Dr. Anderson's oldest daughter was also baptised with water from the same holy stream.

ELINOR GLYN'S MESSAGE ABOUT "THREE WEEKS"

By ELINOR GLYN

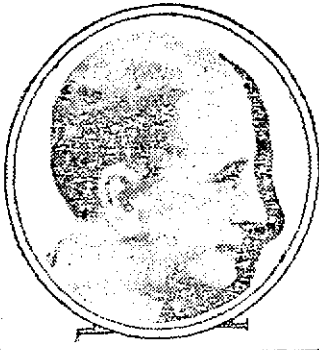

(Mrs. Glyn, who aided Director Alan Crossland in filming for Goldwyn Corporation her novel, "Three Weeks," the screen version of which comes to the National Theatre on Thursday for three days, has written the following message to the public).

I do not think it is often that an author can say that his work has been correctly interpreted on the screen—and that is why it gives me so much pleasure to tell of the making of "Three Weeks"—which goes out all over the world just as I meant it to be, the story of a great love, not a sensual record of passion. Friends of the book will now have the opportunity of seeing it in pictures. And, if at first they do not recognize the opening scenes as belonging to the story, it is because they were only vaguely alluded to in one or two chapters, not actually described. But they were in my mind, and they show the home environment of "The Lady", the ugly life in the Palace that she was obliged to endure with the disreputable King, her husband in name only. And when that is established, we then get to Paul's home, Verdane Place, in peaceful England, on the eve of his departure for a trip abroad, to forget that humorous boyish cult-love affair with Isabella, the Parson's worthy daughter! And from then onward, the picture moves exactly as the romance in the book moves—only condensed for the exigencies of the silver sheet—but the spirit is there—the spirit of tenderness, love and passion—and love's twin sister—sacrifice, and so to the final tableau, when the spirit has risen beyond earthly things, and things rest and consolation. The Lady paid the price of breaking the law of man—with her life—but love's eternal flame burned on.

Every scene has been a joy to make. I wrote the scenario in England, and came to California six months ago to begin production. I wanted to get into it all the salient points of the book, and yet carry it along with that sustained interest, which is so necessary in a cinema. And with the able assistance of Mr. Carey Wilson, we made what I hope is a live-wire continuity together.

Then perfect types had to be found for the various parts. I never had a doubt about Alcen Pringle for "the Lady". She represents exactly what I want my Queen to mean—a person of dignity and refinement, with the purity of the Slav, and none of the vulgar vamp allurements which some mistaken people were into the idea of the part.

OFFICIAL BALLOT
"For the adoption of the Charter prepared by the Charter Commission duly elected on the 18th day of March, 1924, and which was reported

DR. ELIOT'S REPLY TO DR. BUTLER

Letter of President Emeritus of Harvard, to Fred W. Smith, New York, Chairman of Committee of 1,000 for Law Enforcement.

"You tell me that the citizens committee of 1,000 believe that if the statement made by President Nicholas Murry Butler goes unchallenged 'It will have three very bad effects': first, it will encourage people to violate the prohibition laws and other laws; secondly, it will dishearten the students of American universities in their efforts to enforce prohibition legislation on university premises; thirdly, it will announce to the whole world that American constitutional government has failed.

"In my opinion, President Butler's statement will have no such effects. It will not increase the number of wets in the United States; it will dishearten no dry students, and it has no tendency whatever to prove that American constitutional government has failed.

"You ask me for a 'concise statement of the attitude of our educators' toward the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Act. Of course, I have no authority to speak for our educators; but I am glad to have this opportunity to express three opinions, my own opinions, as follows:

"An overwhelming majority of the teachers and educators of our country believe in bringing up all children not to use alcohol in any form for the sake of their own health and of the public health, and also believe that the reasons for the prohibition of alcoholism should be taught in all schools as part of the regular instruction in personal and community hygiene.

"The testimony now being given by manufacturers, physicians, nurses, and social workers as to the improvement in the condition of the population, at large which has taken place since the Eighteenth Amendment was adopted is so potent that it will soon convince the great majority of the American population, both native and foreign, that the complete disuse of alcoholic drinks will result in enormous benefits to any people that accomplishes it.

"The prohibitory legislation is being better and better enforced; and its complete enforcement will follow after a time upon the appointment of enforcing officers on the merit system instead of the 'spoils' system. The first batch of officers to enforce the prohibition legislation were all spoils men, that is, were appointed by members of the Senate and House of Representatives in their personal or party interests; and inevitably a large proportion of the men so appointed turned out to be either morally or mentally incompetent.

"I venture to add to these statements of opinion the following prophecy:

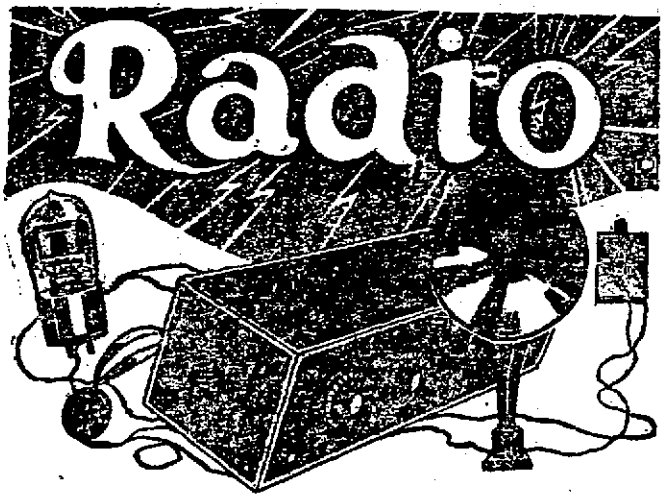

"Neither the Republican nor the Democratic Party will venture to put a 'wet' plank into its party platform at the coming presidential election. Even the wettest of the politicians see the strong trend of public opinion toward the enforcement of all the laws against the manufacture and sale of alcoholic drinks. This prophecy is based on the extraordinary progress of democracy throughout the world during the past 10 years, a progress which has been characterized by active support of all promising means of promoting the public welfare. Among these means there is none better than the abolition of alcoholism."

VETERANS TO PLACE BOULDERS ON GRAVE

OMAHA, Neb., June 4.—Four giant red boulders that once piled high in the lawn at "Thornwald," home of the late Senator John M. Thurston, are to be placed on the grave of Mrs. Thurston in Prospect Hill cemetery here if relatives approve.

The work of transferring the boulders was undertaken by the Spanish War Veterans in honor of the wife of the man whose famous speech on "Force" delivered before congress, resulted in declaration of war on Spain.

The boulders were shipped here years ago by Senator Thurston who selected them in Montana.

SNAKES EAT FISH IN LOPEZ CANYON

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif., June 4.—Water snakes have made trout fishing in this section almost useless, local anglers say.

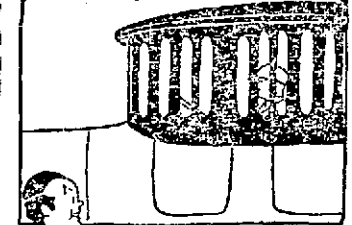

The fish, especially the trout in the streams in Lopez canyon, are so scared by the exceptional large number of water snakes that they will not bite and hundreds are being destroyed daily by the reptiles. Fishermen report that in several instances fish have been snatched off their hooks by snakes.

The unusual condition is due to a forest fire that swept Lopez canyon last year and that killed most of the rattlesnake variety. The fire also killed the field mice, gophers and other small animals which the water generally feed on, forcing them to turn to the trout streams for food.

From 1 to 20 per cent of the fuel used in ships is wasted through the retardation of speed by the algae and barnacles on ship bottoms.

Champions Business Methods In Affairs of Fraternal Societies

CHICAGO—Fraternal societies of the United States, under business administrations, are entering upon the period of their greatest usefulness and prosperity, according to W. R. Shirley, of Muskogee, Okla., president of the National Fraternal Congress, in an address at the meeting of the Presidents Section here.

"Business methods in fraternal societies imply no sacrifice of fraternal spirit," said Mr. Shirley. "Business methods are filling empty pews in churches, financing charities, raising money in philanthropic movements. Fraternalism plus business means for fraternalism more efficient power for good in a wider field.

"But grave problems are ahead. Tennessee has passed a law taxing fraternal benefits and placing fraternal societies on the same level as old-line insurance companies. Such laws are unjust. Fraternal societies are not commercial. Fraternal insurance makes no profits. That is the answer of the fraternal orders.

"Whether to fight such laws in the courts or in politics is a question for future determination. But the time is here when the fraternalists must stand together as a unit in combating such hostile legislation."

The National Fraternal Congress is composed of the great fraternal societies of America with an aggregate membership of 10,000,000 and aggregate insurance benefits of 10,000,000,000. Thomas E. McDonald, Chicago, of the Catholic Order of Foresters, is vice-president and Mrs. Mary E. LaRocca, Omaha, Supreme Guardian of Woodmen Circle, a member of the executive board.

Federation Head Sees Much Lone But More to Do

LOS ANGELES, Calif., June 4.—Mrs. Thomas G. Winter of Minneapolis, Minn., President of the Federation of Women's Clubs, made her report to the convention today. For four years Mrs. Winter has been the official head of the 2,500,000 women members of the organization. She retires after the present session.

The four years just ended Mrs. Winter said made the following contributions to Federation life:

1. The closer relation of state officers to each other and to the General Federation.
2. The increase in number of clubs in direct membership from two thousand to five thousand.
3. The movement toward universal membership made actual in fourteen states.
4. The organization of department work.
5. The democracy of the free news bulletin.
6. The purchase and equipping of headquarters.
7. Junior membership, organization and club institutes.

After reviving in detail the accomplishments of the organization in its four years of her administration, Mrs. Winter concluded:

"But these contacts with things that are going on all over the country reflect back in a renewed confidence in the vital forces and in our own dominating influence, our potency if we choose to avail ourselves of our chances for greatness.

"So the administration of 1920 to 1924 bequeaths to 1924 to 1926 a problem rather than an accomplishment, but a problem with a mighty hope. We have been only a push-off. May 1924 to 1928 fly where we have plodded!"

WHAT BOB TAYLOR THOUGHT OF INFIDELS

The following from the pen of Robert L. (Bob) Taylor, following a visit to a theatre where he heard a famous infidel berate Christianity is one of the greatest sermons ever preached in a few words:

"I sat in a great theatre in the national capital. It was thronged with youth—a beauty old age and wisdom. I saw the man, the image of God, stand up on the stage and I heard him speak.

"His great gestures were perfection of grace, his voice was music, and his language was more beautiful than any I had ever heard from mortal lips.

"He painted picture after picture of the pleasures and joys and sympathies of the home. He enthroned love and preached the gospel of humanity like an angel. Then I saw him dip his brush in the ink of mortal blackness and blot out the beautiful picture he had painted; I saw him stab love dead at his feet; I saw him blot out the stars and sun and leave humanity and the universe in eternal darkness and eternal death.

"I saw him like the serpent of old, worm himself into the paradise of human hearts and by his seductive eloquence and subtle devices and sophistry inject his fatal venom, under whose blight its powers faded. Its music was hushed, its sunshine was darkened and its soul was left a desert of faith and hope.

"I saw him like a lawless, erratic waste, with only the new-made graves, a meteor without an orbit, sweep across the intellectual sky, brilliant only in self-consuming fire generated by friction with the indestructible and eternal truths of God.

"That man was the archangel of modern infidelity and I said: How true is holy writ which declared 'The fool hath said in his own heart there is no God.'

"Tell me not, O infidel, there is no God, no heaven, no hell! Tell me not, O infidel, there is no risen Christ!

"What intelligence less than God's? What motive power is it, if not God, that drives the throbbing engine of the human heart with ceaseless, tireless stroke, sending that crimson stream of life bounding and circulating through every vein and artery?

"When and what, if not God is this mystery we call mind! What is in that thinks and feels and knows and acts? O, who can deny the divinity that stirs within us?

"God is everywhere and in everything. His mystery is in every bud and blossom and leaf and tree; in every rock and vale and hill and mountain; in every spring and rivulet and river. The result of His wing is in every zephyr; its might is in every tempest. He dwells in the dark pavilions of every storm cloud. The lightning is His messenger and thunder His voice. His awful trade is in every earthquake and in every angry ocean. The heavens above us teem with His myriads of shining witnesses. The universe of solar systems, whose wheeling orbs course the crystal paths of space, proclaim through their dead halls the domination of an omnipotent and eternal God."

SELF DEFENSE IS CLAIM IN BIG KILLING

Neighbors Testify Brown Was Benefactor To Them All When He Slew Enemies

Excitement was intense last night when a hurry call came to headquarters with the tip that a real riot had broken out in an exclusive neighborhood. Officers rushed to the scene and demanded an explanation.

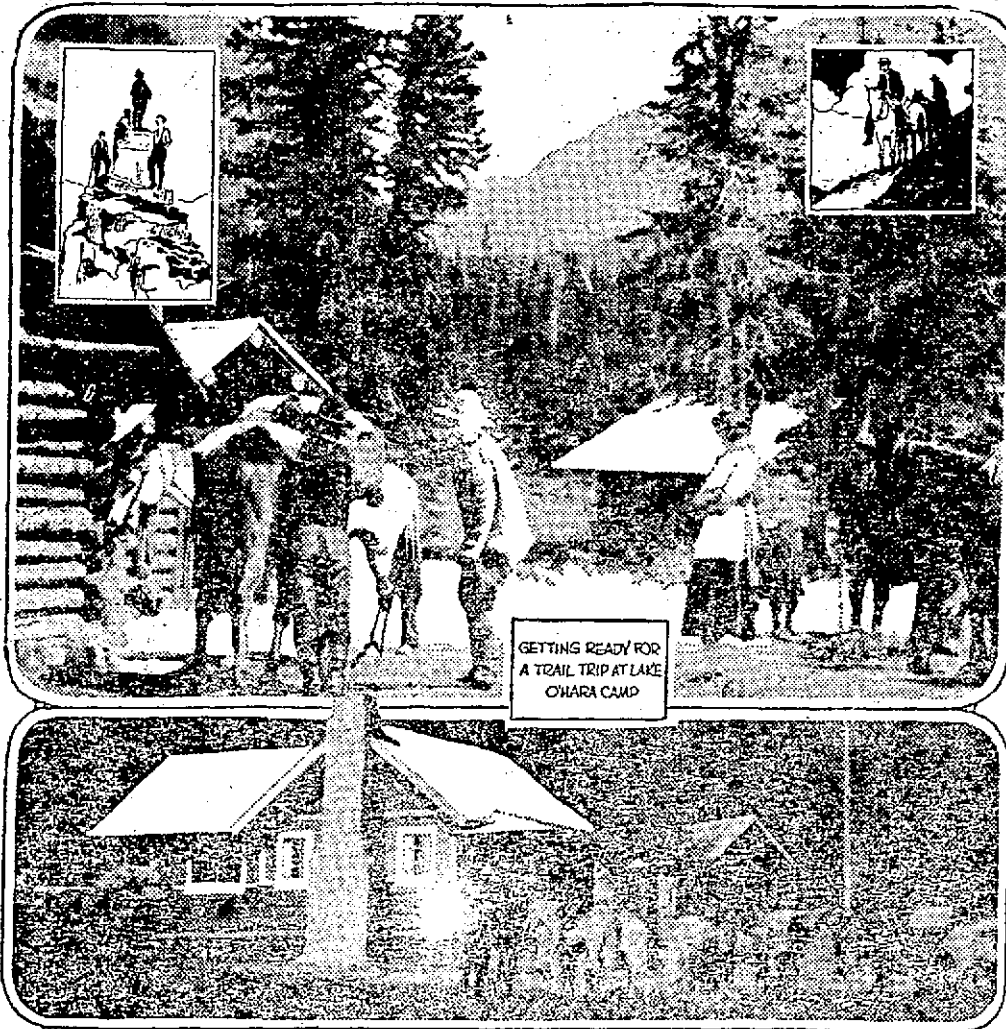

"Why Mr. Brown did it—and we are all thanking him for killing them, too," declared one pretty woman, in the center of the large crowd on the sidewalk. "We've been nearly tormented to death with flies, mosquitoes, roaches and ants, but Mr. Brown came home tonight with some Fly-Flu and said he was going to rid the whole neighborhood of these pests. He did it too, and I guess we forgot ourselves in our joy and made a lot of noise.

"Just look in our houses now and you won't find a one of those awful insects living. They are every one stone dead—and they are all going to die that come around us again, now that we know what Fly-Flu will do."

Fly-Flu is certain death for every kind of insect or bug pest—Flies, Roaches, Mosquitoes, Waterbugs, Ants, Fleas or the bugs and lice that infect plants drop dead the minute they breathe it. Kills moths and their eggs. Yet it is absolutely harmless to humans or plants—is an excellent deodorant and cannot stain.

Price 50c for large bottle with handy sprayer free, at drugists, grocers and general stores. Substitutes can't and won't do the work. Get genuine Fly-Flu and end the insect pest.

Enthusiastic Lovers of Out-of-Door Life Will Find Ideal Opportunities For It In Canada's Mountain Camps

Summer brings a desire for high mountains to hosts who know the joys of vacationing among heaven-kissing hills. And no mountain district is more popular than the Canadian Rockies with their innumerable peaks of varying heights, their fascinating waterfalls, their vast glaciers and ice-fields, their abundant variety of trails—for tramping or riding—and a perfect maze of colorful lakes and sparkling streams, most of them well stocked with game fish. Palatial hotels and cozy bungalow camps scattered among these peaks, are so popular that they are taxed to capacity all through the warm months.

A tide of tourists begins flowing into these resorts early in June and ebbs with the waning of September. Many remain late into the fall for autumn is one of the most glorious seasons known to the Canadian Rockies. Rising is sheer delight in the cool, crisp autumn weather. The mountain sides are veritable artists' palettes, decked as they are with verdure of brilliant hues.

However, the greatest volume of visitors vacation during June, July and August and they will be found filling every hotel and camp, and the trails radiating in all directions are traveled daily by parties bound for surrounding points of interest. The new bungalow camps at Lake O'Hara, Wapta Lake, and Moraine Lake are in the Lake Louise region. By making one of these camps headquarters, it is possible to penetrate on foot or by pony into some of the sublimest of mountain scenery within easy distance. Moraine Lake Camp gives easy access to a fascinating region behind the Ten Peaks where excellent fishing may be enjoyed in Consolation Lake. From Lake O'Hara Camp, an interesting trail leads up to Mt. Biddle and Lake McArthur which form a wondrous picture. Lake Wapta Camp is within riding distance of Yoho Camp in the wonder valley of the same name and also of that green gem, Emerald Lake with its picturesque Swiss Chalet and cluster of cozy bungalows. Trails on ribbon all the giant mountains in this section and weeks can be well spent here exploring its hidden charms. These camps provide comfortable accommodations and excellent cuisine at reasonable rates.

CONDUCTOR SIMS FREE OF NINETEEN YEARS TROUBLE

One of the most remarkable statements in connection with Karnak, the sensational new medicine that is being so widely discussed here, was made a few days ago by Mr. William Sims, 771 West Elm St., Springfield, Mo. Mr. Sims is the popular conductor on the Florida Special, crack passenger train on the Frisco between Kansas City and Memphis, and numbers his friends by the thousands.

"I would not take a block of the best business property in Springfield for the good Karnak has done me," declared Mr. Sims. "For over nineteen years I suffered day and night from rheumatism and although I spent a small fortune on treatments and faithfully took the baths at Hot Springs nothing helped me. I finally got so I could not even walk or stand on my feet and of course I had to give up my run. It looked like my usefulness was about ended.

"But Karnak has knocked my

The statement of Mr. Sims is typical of the hundreds being made every day by those who have experienced the remarkable health-restoring qualities of this sensational new medicine. Karnak is sold in Mexia by the Mexia Drug Co.—(Adv.)
